

DOMINICAN SISTERS OF HOUSTON

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH OR QUOTE FROM MATERIALS

Conditions:

Permission to Publish form must be completed listing materials used and for what purpose. The requester's signature indicates agreement with the use conditions assessed.

Credit must be given to the Dominican Sisters of Houston Archives. This citation should read "Collection title, Dates, Dominican Sisters of Houston Archives, Houston, TX." The appropriate collection's name and dates can be found on the collection's finding aid or will be provided by the Archivist.

Permission to publish is for one-time use only. The Dominican Sisters of Houston Archives retain all intellectual property rights to the materials. Reproductions are to be used only for the purpose stated on the permission form. The term "to publish" includes but is not limited to, print, film, video, slide presentation, television, or computer or other electronic transmission, Web and exhibit formats.

The Dominican Sisters of Houston Archives reserves the right to limit the number of digital copies made; to restrict the use or reproduction of materials, to ensure the use of material from its files is reproduced in good taste; and to deny a request because of copyright regulations, privacy rights, or donor-imposed regulations.

The requester is responsible for securing any necessary permission from the creator of the work or heirs, if known. The creator's name will be provided, if known. In requesting permission to publish materials from these collections, the requester agrees to indemnify and hold The Dominican Sisters of Houston Archives, The Dominican Sisters of Houston, and their staff harmless and free from any liability for the acts of the requestor in any action involving infringement of the rights of any person, heirs, or descendants under statutory copyright.

In some cases a courtesy copy of the publication will be requested for the Archives.
