Administrative History

The Dominican Sisters of Houston began publishing monthly newsletters in November of 1958. Each month, issues were distributed to sisters at their respective missions. Originally, information and news were collected from missions and the administrative office by Sr. Mary Louise Dolson, Third Counselor, who published the newsletters. These newsletters include information on upcoming events, the progress of various missions, the wellbeing of certain sisters, major announcements, and progress at the Novitiate.

Over time, various iterations of the monthly newsletter were produced, but each remained essentially the same. In all their forms, newsletters were intended to keep the sisters up to date on the news and activities of the community.

Current issues of the monthly newsletter continue this pattern. They include information and updates about departments within the Dominican Sisters of Houston, the activities of sisters, staff, and ministry partners, and upcoming and past events. Today, information is gathered by the administrative assistant and compiled into the newsletter.

Scope and Contents Note

The monthly newsletter collection contains both analogue and digital newsletters published by the Dominican Sisters of Houston and distributed internally. Materials are organized chronologically into five series. Each series contains newsletters from a different iteration of the monthly newsletter. In each iteration, the titles and the designs of the issues changed, but the content remained the same. These newsletters document the various activities and concerns of the Dominican Sisters of Houston and individual sisters.

There are no newsletters from 1969 through 1978 though it is not known whether no newsletters were published, or no newsletters were collected for the archives during this time. Additional gaps exist in this collection. It is similarly unknown whether issues from absent months or years are missing because they were not saved for the Archives or if they were not published.

Note that only one issue of the newsletter is published in the summer months. Thus, June and July, or occasionally July and August, share one issue.

New newsletters are added each year.

Arrangement

This collection is comprised of a five series representing the five iterations of the monthly newsletters written and distributed internally by the Dominican Sisters of Houston. Note that some issues are missing.
