Collection Details

Administrative History

Each year the Dominican Sisters of Houston produce and distribute internally an anniversary list with of all its members' birthday, feast day, or date of death. Sisters use these lists to keep track of anniversaries. All sisters, living and deceased, are included in these booklets.

Sisters' feast day correspond to the feast day of the saint from which they got their religious name. Originally, once a sister received her religious name, she no longer commemorated her birthday, instead celebrating her feast day. With the reforms brought about from Vatican II, many sisters shed their religious names in favor of their baptismal names. As such, sisters were permitted to chose whether they wished to celebrate their birthday or their feast day with the community. Sisters' birthdays or feast days are listed in these booklets according to their preferences at the time of publication.
