Collection Details

Administrative History

Dominican Light was first published in the Fall of 1976 to increase communication with the public, encourage vocations, and share Dominican history. In this quarterly magazine, sisters published articles detailing their ministry work, religious lifestyle, and personal histories. Sister Mary de Lourdes Warren served as the first, and only, editor for the magazine. As editor, Sister de Lourdes solicited and edited articles from sisters for publication. The magazine ceased publication in 1979 due to a dearth of subscribers.
